

Personal Statement: Part A Short Essay

Applicant's full name: _____

Write a response in English of approximately 500 words on the topic below. Answer all questions. Responses will be evaluated for content, quality of writing, and clarity of expression. Use 12-point font single-space (Times New Roman preferred).

There are innumerable options for higher education today. Why did you choose to apply to the Discovery Program at Okayama University? In other words, how do the program structure, curriculum, and/or multicultural environment match your specific academic aims, personal interests, and career goals? What unique strengths, abilities, or contributions will you bring to our community?

Total word count: