To all Okayama University graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation today.

We would like to provide the following information from Okayama University and the Okayama University Alumni Association.

Okayama University individually sends announcements and guidance regarding activities conducted by the University and the Alumni Association to all graduates and degree recipients. For this purpose, the University will use personal information held by the University, such as student records and information regarding your post-graduation status and employment. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

Please note that your personal information will not be used for any purposes other than those listed below.

Purposes for Which Personal Information Will Be Used

- 1) Providing information on university-sponsored activities that are deemed to contribute to the advancement of education and research at Okayama University.
- 2) Activities supporting the employment of current students of Okayama University.
- 3) Communication and delivery of various requests or notices from Okayama University or the Okayama University Alumni Association.
- 4) Providing information on activities and events hosted by the Alumni Association, as well as related communications.
- 5) Distribution of Alumni Association newsletters and related materials (including electronic formats), limited to those consistent with the objectives of the Alumni Association.
- 6) Administrative tasks and notifications related to managing membership fee income and expenditures of the Alumni Association.

Your personal information will not be disclosed or provided to any third party other than contracted service providers (e.g., mailing companies) without your consent. However, please be advised that your information may be disclosed without consent if required by law, or when requested by a court, police agency, or other public authority. In addition, your information may be disclosed or provided to alumni associations at the faculty or department level, but only within the scope of the above purposes.
