Message

The academic information system includes a function for receiving web messages from course instructors and academic administrators. It is important to check these messages regularly.

* Please note that communication methods regarding course content may vary between courses and instructors, whether through messages or Announcements on Moodle.

The screenshot shows the Moodle Messages interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: "Top page", "Messages" (highlighted in red), "Course grades", "Register information", and "Various settings". Below the tabs, there are links for "Incoming history", "Outgoing history", "Received deleted", and "Sent and deleted", each with a circled number (1-4). A red arrow points from the text "Clicking on the subject will display the content in detail." to the subject column of the message list.
