

(1) Determination of International Student Status

For the first semester, international student status for tuition purposes is determined each year based on whether the student holds a “Student” status of residence as of May 1. For the second semester, international student status for tuition purposes is determined each year based on the student’s status of residence as of November 1.

(2) Students Eligible for the Tuition Freeze

- Both international and Japanese students who are enrolled as of the end of FY2026 (March, 2027) are eligible for tuition freeze .
- The tuition freeze applies to students who advance to or enroll in another program at the University while maintaining continuous enrollment.

However, students who leave the University for any reason, including graduation, completion of a program, withdrawal, or expulsion, and are subsequently readmitted will not be eligible for the tuition freeze.
