EXCHANGE PROGRAM OKAYAMA (EPOK)
HOUSING INFORMATION

Your accommodation will be booked at Okayama University International Share-House where international students can share a unit with a Japanese student. This provides great opportunities to exchange with Japanese students in daily life as well as those from other countries and regions.

You will be accommodated in a single room equipped with a desk, a chair, a locker, a bed without linens and an air-conditioner. You will share a Unit with a bathroom with shower, a toilet, a refrigerator, a kitchen and an air-conditioner with three other students.

A. Rent, Utilities Bills:
   You will find a bill for the rent and utilities in your mailbox each month. The caretaker of the dorm is in charge of bills. Please make the payment by the designated date.

B. Food:
   The dormitories have no meal plan. You can cook in your unit or have meals at cafes and/or restaurants on and off campus.

C. Telephone:
   There is no room phone at the dorms. We suggest that you use the public phone or buy a cell-phone.

D. Bedding Information:
   The residents can purchase a set of beddings at the dorm.
   14,796yen/set (as of May 2016. Including: a comforter, a futon mattress, a pillow, a sheet and a blanket)
   * You cannot choose the color and pattern.)
