

August 2026

To Applicants, Sponsors, and Other Stakeholders

Okayama University

Revision of Tuition Fees for Students Entering in FY2027

Thank you for your continued understanding of and support for Okayama University's education and research activities.

Okayama University has decided to revise the tuition fees for students enrolling in FY2027 and thereafter, as outlined below.

Please note that the revised tuition fees will also apply to the tuition amounts stated in admission guidelines and other application materials that have already been published.

This revision applies only to students entering the University in FY2027 and thereafter. Tuition fees for currently enrolled students will remain unchanged.

Further details are available on the University's website. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation regarding this matter.

1. Tuition Fees for Japanese Students and Equivalent Categories

Category	Revised Tuition	Implementation
Undergraduate Schools (including the Discovery Program for Global Learners)	¥642,960 per year	Applicable to students entering in April 2027 and thereafter
Graduate Schools (excluding the School of Law) Master's Courses and Professional Degree Course	¥642,960 per year	Applicable to students entering in April 2031 and thereafter
Graduate Schools Doctoral Courses	No change (¥535,800 per year)	—
School of Law Professional Degree Course	No change (¥804,000 per year)	—

2. Tuition Fees for International Students*

Category	Revised Tuition	Implementation
Undergraduate Schools (including the Discovery Program for Global Learners) and Graduate Schools (including the School of Law)	¥1,339,500 per year	Applicable to students entering in April 2027 and thereafter

*"International students" refers to persons holding a "Student" residence status under the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act. International students holding other residence statuses are included in the category of "Japanese Students and Equivalent Categories."

For international students enrolled at Okayama University as of March 2027 (limited to research students in the case of non-degree students), the revised tuition fees will not apply if they advance to a higher degree program while remaining continuously enrolled at the University. In such cases, the current tuition fees will continue to apply.

3. Okayama University Website (<https://www.okayama-u.ac.jp/>)

Policy on Tuition Fee Adjustment for Students Entering in FY2027 and Thereafter
-A World-Leading Research University Serving as a Regional Core-
Enhancing Education and Student Support through Tuition Fee Adjustment